

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

THE CANADIAN JOURNAL OF

UROLOGY™

The Canadian Journal of Urology (CJU) is a peer reviewed bi-monthly journal with an international readership that is indexed and abstracted in Index Medicus/Medline, Current Contents/Clinical Medicine, Science Citation Index Expanded (SciSearch) and Journal Citation Reports/Science Edition.

The CJU publishes articles of interest to the field of urology and related specialties who treat urologic diseases in the following categories:

- Original articles. This may include topics such as female urology, male sexual dysfunction and infertility, andrology, infectious diseases, prostate diseases, neurourology, voiding dysfunction, reconstruction, pediatric urology, endourology, urolithiasis, laparoscopic and robotic surgery, history of Urology, new technologies, outcomes research and urologic oncology (surgical, medical, radiation and minimally invasive topics).
- Basic and Translational Science articles. These should focus on near term translational findings in the field of urology.
- Review Articles. Reviews are accepted for peer review and should follow the format guidelines as outlined below. Authors of review articles are encouraged to contact the Editor-in-Chief to determine if there is a need for such a review, but this is not required. Review articles may also be invited by the Editor-in-Chief.
- Editorial Comment and Author Reply. Based on a specific published article.
- Resident's Corner. This section is a forum for Residents to publish their articles and should be first author. When submitting to the Resident's Corner, the manuscript must be accompanied by a letter from the Residency Program Director and should identify the Resident and their level. Please note that Case Reports are no longer accepted unless it is being submitted to the Resident's Corner section of the journal. The format of the Case Report differs from a standard submission as follows:
  1. Total page length must not exceed 10 pages.
  2. "Abstract" Narrative form, less than 100 words total with 3-5 key words.
  3. "Introduction" Section.
  4. "Case Report" Section describing the clinical presentation and management.
  5. "Discussion" Section.
  6. References limited to less than 10 references.
  7. Images should be limited to no more than three high quality photos, imaging studies or photomicrographs.
- How I Do It. This section publishes articles describing unique and innovative techniques or devices for Urologists to use.
- Legends in Urology. This section is only by invitation from the CJU. This section honors those individuals in their own words who have made major contributions to the specialty of urology.

- Supplements. Articles for supplements are only by invitation of the Editor in Chief.
- Book Reviews. These are published only by invitation of the Editor in Chief.

SUBMISSION PROCESS

Manuscripts are considered with the understanding that neither the article nor any essential portion has been previously published and is not under consideration by any other publication. Accepted manuscripts become the property of the publisher and may not be re-printed elsewhere without the prior written consent of the publisher and author(s). All authors will be required to sign a Copyright Transfer Agreement for each manuscript submitted.

All manuscripts are to be submitted online at www.canjurol.com and then selecting the menu item "Article Submission" at the top of the page.
